"It behooves us to glory in the CROSS of our LORD Jesus Christ"

October 2, 1962

Dear Mr. Meredith,

I don't know exactly what I expect to accomplish by writing this letter but I feel compelled to send it.

First of all, may I tell you how much I admire your courage and fortitude in taking the action you have taken. I am so completely ashamed at the action most of the Mississippi people have taken - I don't see how these people can call themselves Americans. As a student of Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois let me add that those I have "heard" up here are all on your side, too. I certainly hope that, God willing you will be able to finish your education peacefully at the institution of your choice.

Once again - I sincerely admire you - and wish you well in all you do.

I shall pray for you and the forces for integration at daily Mass. Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

(Miss) Moonyeen Brown
